

Get Trspired!

Dr. Dwan Abrams is a media expert, motivational speaker, certified life coach, business consultant, published author, educator, and businesswoman. A successful entrepreneur, she has taught business classes on a collegiate level. Her life's mission is to help people break through the barriers preventing them from living the life they desire.

Dr. Dwan is a dynamic speaker. She has been a keynote speaker at such distinguished events as the National Book Club Conference, Black Writers Reunion and Conference, Bayou Soul Writers Conference, Augusta Literary Festival, Faith and Fiction Retreat, Dancing Preachers International Conference Just Write! Workshop and many others

If you want a high energy, impactful speaker, request Dr. Dwan Abrams for your next event. Her topics include:

- Debunking the "Good Girl" Myth a powerful 1-hour presentation tha inspires women to let go of their toxic programming and get unstuck.
- Wrong Guy Magnet this 1-hour discussion encourages women to accept responsibility for their choices, take back their power, and learn how to make better decisions in relationships
- Secure the Bag this 1-hour presentation empowers women to achieve financial freedom through financial literacy regardless of how much money they earn.

Dr. Dwan holds a Ph.D. in Psychology, a Master's in Psychology, as well as an MBA in Marketing. She has been inducted into Who's Who in Black Atlanta. She has also been featured in such magazines as The Morgan, Booking Matters, and Awareness.

Featured or ONE FOR MY MAN

Testumorials

"She's professional, articulate, and knowledgeable. My field producers and I have been so impressed with her work that we would recommend her to coach others to develop the skill and confidence to be effective in interviews." ~Aisha B.

"She is knowledgeable in many areas, and I feel confident working with and referring other people to her." ~Ty J.

$1500 (speaking engagements that require out-of-town travel may incur additional fees)

